

AM I LOSING IT?

Am I losing the love that I had for the Lord
When I first saw the beauty of Jesus;
When I got a fresh start,
And His love filled my heart,
And I wanted to walk with Him?

Am I losing the peace of salvation from sin
That I found when my sins were forgiven;
When the things of the past
Had been dealt with at last,
And my soul felt at home with God?

Am I losing the joy that I felt in the Lord
When I knelt at His feet and repented
Am I slipping back in
To indifference to sin,
And I don't keep in touch with Him?

Am I losing the hope of His coming again
That I got when I heard of the rapture;
Am I longing to see
Him who suffered for me,
Am I yearning to be with Him?

How long will it be till the Lord sets me free
From the weakness that often assails me
Till this body of sin
Is made holy within
And I'll be what I long to be
