

CHRISTMAS IFs

IF Christ had not come down from heaven
By such a miraculous birth,
There would not have been anybody
Who lived without sin on the earth.

IF Christ had not come to the world
And walked in the shoes that we wear,
We'd never believe He could fathom
The trials and temptations we bear.

IF Christ had not come to redeem us
And died on the cross for our sin,
His advent on earth would be useless,
And no one could be born again.

IF Christ had not been resurrected,
The bondage of death would have showed
His sacrifice was insufficient
To pay the full debt that we owed.

So let us let Christmas remind us,
He came down in infinite grace
And bore all our sins in His body,
And suffered and died in our place.
