

CHRISTMAS PEACE

When Holiness clamored for Judgment of sin
God sent us His Son to bring righteousness in.
He came as a human and lived as He should
So there'd be a man who was holy and good,
Then went to the cross and surrendered His breath
To reconcile sinners to God by His death.

The message the angel proclaimed at His birth
Was joy to the world and peace on the earth.
The two go together like peas in a pod,
For joy's an illusion without peace with God;
And pleasure that's based upon temporal things
Can't equal the joy that the peace of God brings.

So don't let the gift of the Lord be in vain,
(Ignoring the issue is simply insane).
Just come to the cross and repent of your sins,
For that's where the peace of God really begins;
And then through His Spirit sent down from above,
He'll give you the peace to rejoice in His love.
