

HE SATISFIES THE LONGING SOUL

*Oh, that men would give thanks to the LORD for His goodness,
And for His wonderful works to the children of men!
For He satisfies the longing soul,
And fills the hungry soul with goodness.
(Psalms 107:8-9 NKJV)*

He satisfies the longing soul
With mercies from above,
And grants contentment to each heart
That learns to trust His love.

He sees the prodigal repent
And greets him with a hug.
He plants a kiss upon the brow,
Of him who was a thug,

He strips away the filthy rags
We wore to feed the swine,
And clothes us in the best of robes
Of righteousness divine.

He puts a ring upon our hand
To mark us as His son;
Commits Himself to be our God
No matter what we've done.

He gives us shoes to walk the way
The sons of God should go--
The path the Savior walked on earth
So many years ago.

He seats us in His banquet hall
In heaven's highest heights,
And bids us fill our feasting souls
With spiritual delights.

He fills our hearts with merriness,
And makes our souls rejoice;
And He's happiest of all,
At one repentant voice.

O sinner come back home to God,
The Spirit pleads anew;
The Son has paid your debt of sin;
The Father yearns for you.
