

How We Shall Bow

God highly exalted Him, and bestowed on Him the name which is above every name, that at the name of Jesus every knee should bow.

Phillipians 2:9&10

If the righteous through the ages,
Who proclaimed God's grace,
Came into His holy presence
Falling on their face,
Well might we, with all our failures,
Fall at Jesus's feet,
Insecure and apprehensive
At the Judgement Seat.

But when we are called to meet Him,
Instant in the sky,
We'll be changed into His likeness,
Quicker than the eye;
These vile bodies will be altered
Like His glorious one;
Our propensity for sinning
Be forever done.

We'll awaken in His presence
Fully glorified;
Knowing He who made us holy
Has been satisfied.
Confident that He'll uphold us
With His nail-scarred hand;
By His righteous intervention
Making us to stand.

Though the Demons bow in terror
When the Lord appears;
Unrepentant sinners bow with
Unrepentant tears;
Angels bow in loyal homage
At His throne above;
We will bow in adoration,
Trusting in His love.
