

THE PERFECT LAW OF LIBERTY

(James 1:25)

The Perfect Law of Liberty is not a paradox;
It's just the chain that binds the lid on old Pandora's box.
For every kind of wickedness exploits the human soul,
Until we yield our wills to God and put Him in control.

(Romans 7:9-11)

Some sins might not appeal to me, despite the tempter's nod,
If they were not forbidden me within the Word of God;
But when I'm told I may not taste the pleasures of a sin,
This fleshly mind tends to rebel, although I'm born again.

(Romans 7:18-19 & Galatians 5:24-25)

And even though I hate to sin, my body lacks the power
Of righteousness and self-control through each and every hour;
Until I crucify the flesh with its desires and lust,
And yield my independence to the Lord I've learned to trust.

(Galatians 5:16)

But walking in the Spirit, I have no desire to sin,
For His Spirit grants my spirit such a holiness within,
That I find I'm liberated from rebellion to the Lord;
And I have the strength to conquer all those sins that I've abhorred.
