

Giving Account to God

Introduction:

Luke 12:16-21

Then He spoke a parable to them, saying: "The ground of a certain rich man yielded plentifully. And he thought within himself, saying, 'What shall I do, since I have no room to store my crops?' So he said, 'I will do this: I will pull down my barns and build greater, and there I will store all my crops and my goods. And I will say to my soul, "Soul, you have many goods laid up for many years; take your ease; eat, drink, and be merry.'" But God said to him, 'Fool! This night your soul will be required of you; then whose will those things be which you have provided?' "So is he who lays up treasure for himself, and is not rich toward God."

Dear Friends, If you don't hear anything else that is said here today, please understand that at any moment God may require an accounting of soul—What you did with your life—at any time.

Fear God and keep His commandments, For this is man's all.

For God will bring every work into judgment, Including every secret thing,

Whether good or evil.
